Political New Year Resolutions

Political New Year Resolutions

David Cameron

Conservatives

1. Win concessions from Brussels to convince the UK public that we should stay in the EU

2. Kick-start housebuilding across the country

3. Secure legacy as Conservative Prime Minister

*Based on Whitehouse's analysis of the party leaders' thoughts for their New Year's resolutions.

The Whitehouse Consultancy

Issues-led communications   020 7463 0690   info@whitehouseconsulting.co.uk   whitehouseconsulting.co.uk

Political New Year Resolutions

Jeremy Corbyn

Labour

1. Win over sceptical backbenchers to plans for the Labour party

2. Claw back voters in Scotland before Holyrood elections

3. Determine effective Labour party position on Trident

*Based on Whitehouse's analysis of the party leaders' thoughts for their New Year's resolutions.

Political New Year Resolutions

Tim Farron

Liberal Democrats

1. Re-establish grassroots support and membership

2. Increase vote share at local council elections

3. Position Lib Dems as reasonable, centrist voice in parliament

*Based on Whitehouse's analysis of the party leaders' thoughts for their New Year's resolutions.

Political New Year Resolutions

#NYResolutions

Nicola Sturgeon

SNP

1. Secure new mandate for Scottish independence

2. Build on 2015 general election with landslide in 2016 Scottish Holyrood elections

3. Get more responsibilities and money for Scotland from London

*Based on Whitehouse's analysis of the party leaders' thoughts for their New Year's resolutions.

Political New Year Resolutions
Nigel Farage

1. Win the Brexit argument and get UK out of the EU

2. Convert UKIP votes into council seats at local elections

3. See off challenges to leadership authority

*Based on Whitehouse's analysis of the party leaders' thoughts for their New Year's resolutions.